Serhij Koroliuk

Mr. Serhij Koroliuk is an Honours Graduate of the Kyiv State University of Culture and Performing Arts, Kyiv, Ukraine, past Professor at the Chernivtsi Cultural College, Head Choreographer of the Bukovynian State Song & Dance Ensemble and an accomplished performer himself. In 1995, he became Artistic Director of the Pavlychenko Folklorique Ensemble of Saskatoon taking it to new artistic heights.

Presently, Serhij lives in Saskatoon and is well known across Canada for his eye-catching and innovative choreographies. Aside from the everexpanding colourful repertoire of "Pavlychenko," many Dance Ensembles across Canada have invited him to do works for them. Although his choreography has deep roots in the homeland, Mr. Koroliuk is not afraid to enhance his work with modern and futuristic concepts. He is also in constant demand as an adjudicator nationally and internationally.

Mr. Koroliuk, wife Nina (also a Dance teacher, Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Dance) and son Kirylo, form a beautiful trio. In his free time, Serhij enjoys painting and ceramics. He is fluent in three languages. However, he does NOT understand the words "I can not".
